Summer Schedule

FRIDAY, JUNE 16th
The "biggest all-over" "Slick" at the "big History meet" for the exceedingly poor attendance. This week he is a "babe". He even went to the "big" to ask me why I wasn't at last Friday's session? We may expect an excellent attendance today at 12:15 when the boys get together at the Community Church. For one meeting at least as if the boys were going to go to school. A. C. Cella, singing, that is without accompaniment. But Elizabeth Jamison, recently returned from school for the summer is helping the kids out with a little musical guidance.

If no piano had been available, I should have been in favor of singing "John Brown" in one of the weeks, held in a steady "lower" and "arise" "Sweet William" Free over at the other side, holding him on a high note. Then maybe the kids could sing all around in between the two lines.

"Tangle" is the night when the boys meet at the Legion hall and the Baptist singers will sing and chant at the church. Incidentally, Homer Haddock, a pillar of the institution, is a regular attendant and a most resonating and booming baritone.

Mr. Walter Harker returned to his home in Chicago after attending the Short Course given for Home Demonstration Club members at Tallahassee.

Mr. and Mrs. Stollenberg left Tuesday for Gainesville where she will attend summer school.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17th
Saturday in Belle Glade is a normal day when all the store owners tear down their doors to allow the steady stream of persons who come to the town to purchase and purchase. Although buying power, seriously speaking, has been on a decline since the opening of the government camp work will increase spending in Belle Glade this summer.

SUNDAY, JUNE 18th
This is the day when all good people "drop in" to the church for a service. They expect to attend the Pioneer Telephone Convention which meets June 24th at DeLeon Springs, returning to Belle Glade after the first of July.

Mr. H. A. Stollenberg was hostess to her bridge club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freeland have had as their guests, Mrs. Freeland's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wright of Long Beach, Cal. They left for New York City Monday to visit their daughter, returning to their California home.

Those attending the Everglades Young People's Union at Chicago Tuesday night from Belle Glade were: Misses Carolyn and Glennis Betner, Misses Ruth and Mary Johnson, Lee Pennington, John Longaker, Bobert Jones, Kermit Dell and Roy J. O. Jamison.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. P. D. Stevens was in charge of the social program which included several prize numbers by Mrs. Philip Clarke and Miss Elizabeth Jamison. Mrs. D. D. Ellis, president of the business session. Mrs. R. E. Teller and Mrs. C. E. Haddox were hostesses and served delicious refreshments.

The regular meeting of the House Demonstration Club was held at the home of Mrs. P. D. Stevens at the Experiment Station. A fuller account of the meeting will appear next week.

Mrs. J. O. Jamison is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, this week at Sebastian.

John Longaker spent Saturday in Wabasso visiting his parents.

Mrs. Bertha Pemberton is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lockmiller at Bellview, Fla.

Mrs. Jack Thigpen and daughter Karline have returned to their home after several weeks in West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thompson spent Wednesday morning shopping in West Palm Beach.

Larry Nash is in New York on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Van Horn of Washington, D. C. are visiting Mr. Van Horn's brother, Ivan Van Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson have gone to Illinois to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward King and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, and son, Mr. Frank Roy Greene, and son, spent Sunday on a picnic at Fish, Esting Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Roberts and children are visiting relatives in Arcadia.

James Darden has returned from a trip to Havana, Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braddock have recently returned from a visit to Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. Irene Sheffield, and son Arlyn, and Mrs. Sheffield's mother, Mrs. L. M. Mock, of Tampa, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Salmons.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21st
The town committee, which can really take it, will meet tonight. $12,000 worth of bonds for the new town hall are just about to be sold. As you might know, the plans to come up, arranging removal of the town office personnel, i. e., Carl A. Henderson and Mrs. McDonald, to the new office.

The Lions Club meets in the afternoon at the home of Harry H. Hanes. The club has really been going places. The quality of the work has been improved. I ought to know. I was one of the earlier ones.

THURSDAY, JUNE 22nd
Church practice at the Community Church. Where is everyone going? The Belle Glade ships off to bed, through efforts of the entire staff, and will George Fernald's girls a workout in the morning.

Extension Granted

Officials was delegated to meet with them.

An ordinance was ordered drawn up changing the dates for registration of voters in Belle Glade. The absentee ballots cannot be counted in the election unless the filing date is changed from 10 days before election date to 15 or 20 days before the date. All candidates must now register here by the deadline of 25 days before election. The registration books will now be open 75 days before the election.

Chairman R. K. Harris suggested that Chairman Walter Greger appoint a committee to make arrangements with the town for moving into the new town hall. A. E. Kirchman and Hugh J. Brantley volunteered services. A relocation date will be set dependent upon when the town offices are moved into the new hall.

Bills amounting to $5.00 from the town general fund were approved for payment when funds are available.

Don't forget that the man who will come to you with a tall story about another man, will go to the other man with a story about the first man.

There may be two sides to every question, but as a rule we don't care much for the other fellow's side.

Virginia Bruce in "Let Freedom Ring"

Who is teamed with Nelson Eddy at the Everglades theatre in Belle Glade on Sunday and Monday and at the Prince theatre in Pahokee Tuesday night.

Early outdoor drama of the pioneer West, "Let Freedom Ring," presents Nelson Eddy in his most stirring role as a cowboy, teaming him with a vast of westerns who despite their formalized costumes and elaborate sets, to match the sterling work of the singing star.

In his singing, his acting and his dramatic act with Victor McLaglen, Eddy sets the new high standard for himself, the role of the young Harvard law graduate who is the Wall Street railroad town, and with Victor McLaglen.

Cleanings

Now the eighth or ninth grade. Most these youngsters in earlier years and you'll have a better opportunity to refine their taste in later years. So, run the downtown school as long as the high schools. But then both for a full term.

Professionalism. The club, through Mrs. Mabel Lutz, chairman of the survey committee, announced this week that a "Signs of the Times" survey is being conducted in this region to solve upon on nine questions relating mainly to women and their activities.

Readers are urged to check the following statements. They think most descriptive of conditions to day, choosing one in each pair of statements, and send to Mrs. Mary L. Hall, president of the club, at the Everglades Experiment Station. (Be sure including the initials are also asked to write their occupation on some.)

Following is the ballot:

1. There is an such opportunity as ever for the position who wants to find work.
2. Clean house groups, because of age, skills, or other conditions, find it impossible to get work, no matter how hard they try.
1. Success or failure is the result of one's own decisions.
2. We may fall because of the nature of others.
1. Even in a democratic business must be regulated in the interest of others.
2. A man in a free country should run his business as he pleases.
1. The aim of business should be to produce as much as possible.
2. The aim of business should be to enable people to consume as much as possible.
1. Good government is possible if every citizen exercises his or her right to vote.
2. All government is run by and for the plutocrats.
1. The production of relief in every line of social, intellectual and economic activity.
2. Women should go back to the home.
1. The problem of relief is temporary to be handled as charity.
2. The production of relief is permanent, to be solved by public works with jobs for everyone who needs work.
1. Old age, health and unemployment insurance are social responsibilities, to be guaranteed by legislation.
2. A person's future is his own responsibility to be safeguarded by savings and investments.
1. We could sell more goods if we advertised more, if we could find foreign markets, if people weren't so used to buying.
2. We could sell more goods if the average family had more purchasing power.

Salvatore Bruised When Car Hits Pole

Carmen Salvatore, Pahokee member of the county school board, received scratches and bruises Tuesday afternoon when his car hit a slick place in the highway between Loxahatchee and West Palm Beach. Mr. Salvatore lost control of the car during a downpour and would have turned over had it not been for a telephone pole. The car ran into the pole and hit a slick place in the highway between Loxahatchee and West Palm Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Walker and children plan to move to Santa Rosa, Fla. within the next month.

Clewiston Topples Pahokee From Lead

Pahokee's hard-working baseball team was toppled from its league-leading perch last Sunday when the Clewiston team outscored the locals 6 to 2 at Clewiston.

Pahokee has led the South Florida League ever since. The first week of play and had won a string of 7 straight games. Earduin and Boynton were "batteries" for Pahokee while "Arund" and Hols took the turn for Clewiston.

Jimmy Stafford, playing first base, was spiked while playing the bag and eight stitches were required to close the wound. He will be able to resume play next week, it was announced.

Hole Soud and Poupans are next on Pahokee's card, both teams to be played away. The team will return for an encounter next Thursday.
